

BETTER TOGETHER

A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER FROM THE PROSOCIAL.WORLD COMMUNITY

NOVEMBER 2019 ● ISSUE NO. 3

The Development Team has been collecting user feedback on The Prosocial Path to upgrade the site and expand the offering. If you haven't had a chance to try it yet, click here and try it out! It's free to set up a test group and we'd love to gather all the feedback we can while working on improvements.

In addition, while working diligently to expand the Prosocial training, we have been working behind the scenes on our own training in Sociocracy.

Sociocracy is a new, socially responsible system of governance that originated in The Netherlands. Originally envisioned in 1945 by Kees Boeke, a Dutch educator and pacifist, as a way to adapt Quaker egalitarian principles to secular organizations, Sociocracy allows us to give and receive effective leadership while remaining peers. In essence, Sociocracy is a set of tools and principles that ensure shared power, and we believe this might be a great implementation tool to incorporate into Prosocial. We mentioned "circles" in the September newsletter, which is a method in Sociocracy. More on circles in the next issue!

We'll keep you updated on our progress and thoughts here, but if anyone has experience using Sociocracy, please let us know if you are able to share your knowledge. Click here to schedule a time.

Thanks for taking this journey with us!
— Prosocial Development Team

David Sloan Wilson Distinguished Professor of Biology and Anthropology at Binghamton University and President of the Evolution Institute, met with the Dalai Lama on October 30, 2019.

In his recent book, This View of Life: Completing the Darwinian Revolution, David emphasizes the need for humans to claim their role as "wise managers of evolutionary processes," and describes how behaviors such as goodness can evolve under the right conditions and notes alignment in the Dalai Lama's call, in Beyond Religion: Ethics for a Whole World, for a "universal approach to ethics, inner values, and personal integrity... that can transcend religious, cultural, and racial differences." David speaks admiringly of the Dalai Lama's commitment to science and empirical inquiry "of all sorts," and looks forward to exploring, together, new frontiers in evolutionary science.
